

Train The Trainer Dementia

18 Ivy Street
Rainham
Kent, ME8 8BE
t 01634 269 180
f 01634 389 853
lin@linalbottraining.co.uk www.linalbottraining.co.uk

Course description:

This intensive course is designed to enable trainers to cascade a half day training session to their staff. The course material contains everything necessary, including PowerPoints and resources, to enable the trainer to deliver the session. This course is a full day because it contains extra,

Duration
6 hours (Full Day)
excluding breaks

Cost
£250 + VAT
per candidate
Up to 12 Candidates

Travel cost and subsistence charges may be incurred dependent on location of training.

We do offer group or organisational discounts on application

Venue
This course could be run at our Training Centre in Rainham, Kent but is typically run at client locations throughout the UK

Assessment & Award
This course assessment is a more in-depth assessment designed to test the knowledge of learners. On successful completion candidates will be awarded the appropriate certificate

Content:

This intensive course covers the following aspects, whilst also exploring the more detailed underpinning knowledge::

Welcome and Introductions

- What is Dementia?
- Types of Dementia
- Causes and risk factors
- Aggressive behaviour
- Hallucinations and delusions
- Memory loss
- Incontinence
- Walking about or wandering
- Repetitive questioning and behaviour
- Perseveration
- Trailing and checking
- Shouting and screaming
- Emotional lability
- Lack of inhibition
- Pacing and fidgeting
- Hiding and losing
- Suspicion
- Person Centred Theory and skills
- Effective communication skills
- Engaging people with Dementia in activities
- Keeping people safe
- Relating to Service Users – methods and ideas

Objectives:

By the end of this course participants will have:

- Gained an understanding of what Dementia means to the sufferer and the carer
- Gained an understanding of the specific difficulties that can arise from Dementia
- Explored some of the coping strategies for carers when caring for someone suffering with Dementia
- Gained an understanding of the long term complications that can arise as a result of suffering with Dementia
- Gained an appreciation of how healthy living and lifestyle will impact on the sufferer and the resultant management of Dementia

